

Transformation of Quality Assurance System of Higher Education in Japan
[A Table of Contents]

Hiroshi Hokama
Chuo University

I Japan University Accreditation Association (JUAA)

- * Voluntary Association of Universities, Independent of the Government
- * The term “university” as used in Japan

II Voluntary System of Quality Assurance

- * Establishment of University Approval by the Ministry of Education
- * JUAA’s Evaluation and Accreditation
- * Evaluation of National Universities by the National Institute for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation (NIAD-UE)

III The Comprehensive and Mandatory System

- * Deregulation in the Domain of Higher Education
- * All Universities to be Evaluated by Certified External Agencies Legal Obligation
- * Separate System for Law Schools
- * Ministry of Education’s Control over the Evaluation Agencies
- * Multiple Evaluation Agencies including JUAA and NIAD-UE Appearing

IV Concluding Remarks

- * Competition among Several Evaluation Agencies
- * JUAA’s Evaluation under the New System